

FEC Glendale/Arcadia Retreat
Sexuality Seminar Permission Letter

A feature of this year's retreat are afternoon workshops that will be held for any interested junior high and high schoolers. The topic for one workshop is- How the Media Messes With Our Minds. The second workshop is- What do I Say To My Homosexual Friend. In this workshop the speaker will talk about how we as Christians should respond to this very hot and controversial topic. If you would like your son/daughter to attend the workshop please fill out the form at the bottom of the page. Below is some information on our speaker and a brief description of the workshop. This workshop is recommended for each high school student and optional for junior high students. If your child is in junior high, the parent must sign this letter of consent if they wish to attend this workshop. All high school students attending this workshop must have parents sign this letter of consent in order to attend this workshop.

Information about our speaker, Brett Kunkle.

He serves with Stand to Reason. (www.str.org)

Here's Stand to Reason's Mission Statement.

Our mission statement explains what kind of activity we're involved in. Stand to Reason's mission can be stated like this:

Stand to Reason trains Christians to think more clearly about their faith and to make an even-handed, incisive, yet gracious defense for classical Christianity and classical Christian values in the public square.

Brief synopsis of the speaker's message:

What Do I Say to My Homosexual Friend?

Can we oppose homosexual behavior and love our homosexual friends at the same time? Brett will equip you with the biblical and philosophical arguments against homosexuality while demonstrating the compassion so desperately needed in this discussion.

I give permission for my (son/daughter), _____ to attend the afternoon Workshop Session on "Sexuality and Marriage" at the FEC Glendale/Arcadia retreat from February 12th to February 15th, 2010.

I understand that topics relating to sexuality, sex, marriage, homosexuality, and dating will be discussed from a Biblical Christian perspective at this retreat.
