Camp Rules

Basic Rule I: Respect God and others

Basic Rule II: Be wise, responsible, and safe!

Basic Rule III: Be friendly

- Do not play pranks, they tend to be destructive and demoralizing.
- MP3 and iPod's, electronic games, etc. are not allowed. A retreat is an opportunity to take break from the distractions of everyday life. They will be held by the staff until we depart camp.
- Please respect all camp property and equipment. Do not move or damage beds, furniture, or light fixtures.
- Do not enter the cabins or restrooms of the opposite gender.
- Be in your cabins before "lights-out" time. Go to sleep after "lights-out" =)
- Romantic walks with members of the opposite gender are totally and completely discouraged.
- Please attend all sessions.
- Please wear your name tags at all times.
- Please walk to cabins and sessions with a partner after dark.
- Hiking is allowed only during free time, only with a youth worker.
- No alcohol, drugs, or cigarettes are permitted.
- No weapons, firearms, fireworks, flammable materials, or flammable liquids are permitted.
- Absolutely no snacks or food permitted to be brought to the camp. Leave all your food, snacks and candy at home.
- Inappropriate behavior (i.e. breaking rules, missing curfew, wandering away from the group, etc.) will not be tolerated and is punishable by removal from the camp. You will be sent home at your parents' cost.

Cheer up! these rules are just to try to make this retreat enjoyable for everybody

Have fun and enjoy yourself!!
